

Dragon's Den LIVE

Tuesday 17th November 2009: 18.30-22.00

As part of our commitment to supporting world class performers who have ventures they wish to develop that will benefit sport and young people, we are very excited to invite you to apply to pitch to four top entrepreneurs who have committed to helping you to make your ideas a reality.

We are calling these people our Dragons and will be running the Dragon's Den Live event as part of the Networking Evening which we are running in partnership with Sport2Business and the British Athletes Commission on 17th November 2009.

The Dragon's

Jamie Constable is the managing director of a successful Private Equity firm - RCapital, which specialises in both growth and turnaround investments to businesses in distress. Since its formation in 2004, RCapital has built a successful track record in the turnaround industry. their most recent acquisitions include FreshFayre and Little Chef, the roadside restaurant chain that it rescued from administration in 2007 which then featured in Heston Blumenthal's: Big Chef Takes on Little Chef.

Jamie Constable qualified as an accountant 1987 and worked as a consultant on turnaround situations in the recession of the late 1980's and early 1990's. He founded his own practice, Constable James, in 1990. The considerable experience gained in this period and subsequently has made Jamie one of the foremost restructuring specialists in the small and middle sized company market.
